

Devon Dumplings CC vs The Haberdashers' Aske's Boys' School 1st XI

On a rather overcast day at The Maer, Exmouth, the School won the toss and elected to bat. They got off to a good start, with Alex Willis hitting a confident 74, including 14 fours and 1 six. However, Jonny Martin, medium swing bowler and Naz Khan, off spin, slowed their runs down while taking wickets on a regular basis. Kenton Vos and Mat Junk, both spinners, took over and finished off the School's innings of 158 all out in 38.1 of their 40 overs, with Vos taking 4 wickets for 20 runs and Martin 3 for 15.

On the whole, the Dumplings produced some good bowling and fielding, and went on to perform well with the bat, with Kenton Vos playing some lovely drives in his total of 81, well supported by Corey Sinclair and Adam Ramcharran who finished not out. The Dumplings lost 5 wickets before reaching the target of 159 off 34.3 overs, with Luca Ignatius taking 3 for 37.

The Haberdashers' Aske's Boys School 158 all out (Alex Wilis 74, Kenton Vos 4/20, Jonathan Martin 3/15).

Devon Dumplings 159 for 5 (Kenton Vos 81, Luca Ignatius 3/37).

Devon Dumplings won by 5 wickets.